

Tenet HIPAA Quiz:

Name: _____ Title: _____

Date: _____ Facility: _____

1. Under the HIPAA privacy rule, it is illegal to:
 - a. Obtain information from a patient during treatment
 - b. Share information obtained from a patient with the patient's physician
 - c. Fail to adequately protect health information from release

2. Malicious software is any kind of software or code that could cause harm to an information system and includes viruses.
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. A fax containing confidential patient information is sent to a residence in error. This should be reported as an incident.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. Tenet has policies and procedures that outline directives for maintaining the privacy of Protected Health Information (PHI).
 - a. True
 - b. False

5. If you suspect that someone is not following the Privacy Policies and Procedures, you should report this to your supervisor, local Compliance Officer or local Privacy Officer.
 - a. True
 - b. False

6. Tenet has policies that provide guidance for:
 - a. Sanctions and mitigation

- b. Training requirements
- c. Neither of these answers
- d. Both of these answers

7. Individuals working in healthcare can share information they overhear while at work if:

- a. The patient is a famous person
- b. The individual's job requires them to share the information
- c. The patient is a member of the individual's family
- d. The patient is the individual's friend

8. You received an e-mail with an attachment called "FunnyFotos.exe" from an unknown party. You should:

- a. Open the attachment and enjoy the funny photos
- b. Forward this e-mail to all of your friends
- c. Forward the e-mail to everyone you work with
- d. Delete the e-mail without opening it

9. You have 10 different passwords and have a hard time remembering them all so you have written them down. ~The best place to store this information is:

- a. Under "P" in your Rolodex
- b. Under your keyboard
- c. Thumb tacked next to your computer
- d. None of the above

10. Patient privacy means:

- a. Patients have a right to expect their health information will be protected
- b. Employees are no longer required to protect patient information

c. Patients must take steps to protect their health information

11. No matter what department you work in, you have a responsibility for assisting in protecting a patient's confidential information.

a. True

b. False

12. You can protect the confidentiality of patient information by:

a. Making sure that your access IDs and passwords are not shared with others

b. Making sure medical records are not left on the top of nursing station counters accessible to the public

c. Making sure you do not access information that is not necessary for you to perform your job

d. All of these answers are true